

Newsletter – April 2009

Back to www.africandays.com

I am so utterly pumped about our new website, I can't wait to get the first newsletter up and published!!

What a great job Jamie Andrules and her staff at Andrules-Fries Design, Inc. have done with putting together our new site. I could not be more satisfied and hope to hear from all of you about what you think of it. Thanks, Jamie – and please also thank your staff for me ...

Well, 2009 is a few months old and already we have had some outstanding hunts and trips take place. The following is just a small sample of great trophies already in the bag:

Pat Buchanan's Kudu

Joe Day's Blue Wildebeest

Chris Reed's Kudu

Michael Henn's Bronzie

Despite all the “doom and gloom” surrounding the economy in the USA, I had an outstanding marketing trip this year. Thanks to all of you who have bought hunts, photo safaris and fishing trips during the last few months. I had a great time and kept real busy booking trips as far out as 2012!! We at African Days couldn't be more grateful and are all looking forward to seeing you in Africa soon. I will be back here in June for three weeks – so those of you who did not get hold of me, please try then. In the mean time – e-mail me and let's get the ball rolling.

The folks at Whitetails Unlimited and the NRA is also doing an outstanding job when our packages come up for auction at the banquets If you haven't been to one – contact Whitetails Unlimited or the NRA to find out when banquets are taking place in your vicinity. Get some friends together and go – it is a lot of fun and there are all kinds of things to be won – including a start to your African trip.....

A recent photo safari caught some incredible photo ops when a young lioness tried to take down a Zebra.

She was a little inexperienced--and got hold of the Zebra--but not completely.

A great fight ensued – the Zebra wasn't going to give up easily.

Eventually the Zebra got on top ...

...and really started giving the lioness what for!!

As soon as the Zebra could, she took off!!!

And gave the lioness a mouth full of hoof – just for good measure!!

We will be posting a monthly newsletter and will look to develop a format where we can acknowledge special events during your visit to us. If anything really special happened to you on your trip, let us know and send us the photos so we can share it with all African Days clients.

A little on the philosophical side – things are not really as bad as the media would like you to believe. It's not very good, but it's not all that bad either. Keep your head up and to hell with them all – we will survive anything and everything they try to throw at us!!!

See you all soon – in Africa!!
